For those involved with Firearms, ATF is out in full force looking for ways to revoke licenses for minor infractions that once were simple warnings.

I have recently been appointed to the Florida Department of Agriculture Consumer Council Advisory Board. I will be working with the head of the Division of Consumer Services and will ensure we have a strong voice with the department and they are fully informed about any issues facing our industry in the state of Florida. Please keep me informed of any concerns or issues you may be facing in your local areas.

Is anyone interested in getting involved and helping the FPA become a stronger organization? Please let me know.

$300 for your first store, $100 each additional store.

Please fill out the membership form on the back of this page and if applicable please include an additional page listing all additional stores and addresses.

Should you have any questions, you may reach me personally at josh@gcpawn.com or info@floridapawnbrokers.net. We need a strong membership to prevent additional legislation that WILL negatively affect us all! This is your cheapest insurance policy!
